Game Highlights

Second game at Taupo against Hawkes Bay was a semi final for the Sir Michael Jones Trophy.

Playing into a strong wind in the first half, Harbour had most of the ball without getting any points.

Hawkes Bay lead at half time with 3 points from a penalty.

Second Half Harbour again controlled the ball for long periods and were rewarded with 3 penalties which were converted to lead 9 to 3 with ten minutes to go.

Hawkes Bay scored a try after harbour lost a player to a yellow card. This was converted to give them the lead.

Harbour had a chance to take the win with a penalty attempt at full time which just missed.

Heartbreak for the Harbour U19 team who need to get up for their final game against Tasman on Saturday being the first televised game at 12.05 pm
